Multi-instrumentalist singer/songwriter Elisa P moved to London from Nice in late 2008, joining up with various music projects until joining up with management group Flat 50 in 2012.

Since then she has focused on solo writing and performing - playing regularly in and around Shoreditch and the East End (where Flat 50 are based), performing for Paralympic athletes in the Olympic Village 2012 and producing an EP with Jon Lawton (regular session musician with Sami Yusuf).

The EP features viola, guitar and piano by Elisa P, additional guitar, bass and keyboard by Jon Lawton and lyrical themes of transition, family and loss.
